Message from our President

I write this message as we are celebrating Pesach, a holiday of hope and joy and always very special to my family, with much sadness as my beloved husband Paul passed away just a week before. Our seders were filled with fond memories and even laughter as family and friends remembered how special Pesach was to Paul. I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who visited and contributed and just supported me and my family with love and comfort. It was truly overwhelming and meaningful and we are so grateful. During this time I reflected about Federation and the role it plays in my life. Next year we will be 100 years old. The celebration of this milestone will only be meaningful if we continue to be a dynamic force for Jewish women for the next 100 years through education, leadership and advocacy. The issues that face us are more challenging than ever from "women's rights," including economic freedom and pay equity and decisions about our reproductive health, to concerns about increasing violence in our society, mostly based on discrimination and anti-semitism. The situation in the Middle East, especially as Iran threatens to be a nuclear power, is a great danger not only to Israel, but also to us here in the United States and probably the whole world. So as we begin to celebrate with fun, festivities and exciting programs (stay tuned for details), it will only be meaningful if we educate, train and advocate to make it happen. We must truly "Lift Our Voices" to make a difference. Then together we will honor the memories of those who laid the groundwork for excellence. Join me over the next year as we meet, educate and act so that 2016 will not only be a successful anniversary but also truly a symbol of the meaning of Pesach, reaching great goals and dreams together. B'Shalom,

Sheila K Derman

FEDERATION'S 99TH ANNUAL CONVENTION MAY 7, 2015

"WOMEN WHO LIFT THEIR VOICES"

Rochelle Bohrer and Linda Boteach
99th Convention Co-chairs

Please join us for the Federation's 99th Annual Convention on Thursday, May 7th, at Temple Oheb Shalom, 7310 Park Heights Avenue. The theme this year is "Lift Our Voices." The Morning Session, beginning at 9:30 a.m. will feature Keynote Speaker Jeanne Allert, M.Ed founder and Executive Director of The Samaritan Women, who will educate us on the issues surrounding domestic human trafficking. Our afternoon session will start a little earlier this year at 11:30 a.m. so that we will have time to present a special Lag B'Omer treat; a concert performed by some local talented cantors.

Beth Goldsmith

The E.B. Hirsh Lifetime Achievement Award, that each year honors an outstanding Jewish woman in the community, will be presented to Beth Goldsmith, who is an exemplary community leader.

Lastly, most of our constituent organizations have selected an honoree to receive the "Woman Who Lifts Her Voice" award. Federation is honored to recognize these women for their contribution to their organization and to the community. Mazel tov to these wonderful women who have accepted this responsibility. We anticipate with joy the creative energy and their commitment of service they shall bring to Federation.

Blessed is the leader who seeks the best for those she serves. (unknown)

As I write this, there are 7 days left in the 2015 General Assembly session. Many bills are still sitting in committees in one house or the other.

The Budget bill has passed both houses with differences which are not considered major and the bill is expected to be passed without additional controversy. The "rain tax" was not repealed although it appears to be heading for passage with amendments for its funding mechanisms and the gas tax law has not been repealed. For the Baltimore Jewish community, all of our requested funding in the operating budget was funded at the same level as last year. A great deal of effort went into working with the various department secretaries to keep our programs in the budget. Although the Governor wanted to end the structural deficit in one year, a compromise was reached which eliminates 73% of the deficit in the 2016 budget.

Legislative Update
by Jo-Ann Orlinsky

The Education Tax Credit, Death with Dignity (assisted suicide) and most of the Domestic Violence and human trafficking bills remain in committee. A bill permitting a protective order in a domestic violence case to remain in effect for two years has passed both houses. A bill to add additional relief to protective orders has passed the House and is in committee in the Senate. Bills requiring an inventory of sexual assault evidence kits (rape kits) by January 1, 2016 have also passed both houses. Bills establishing a workgroup to study the establishment of a safe harbor for victims of human trafficking also passed both houses. A bill to establish a Maryland Equal Pay for Equal Work Act was voted unfavorably in the House Economic Matters Committee.

Breaking News: The Governor has just issued an Executive Order extending the Legislative Session for 10 days for the sole purpose of passing the Budget bill. Stay tuned!!

GREAT START 2015 FEDERATION PROGRAMS

We started the year off with two outstanding programs. In January, on a very cold bitter morning, we were greeted very warmly by the Beth El Sisterhood with a delicious breakfast. Helene Waranch and Jackie Cohen facilitated "Mentoring Future Leader's," a very informative program about the "hows" and "whys" of mentoring and how the future cannot be implemented without trained and mentored leaders. In March, hosted by Beth Israel and Adat Chaim, Barbara Weinstein of The Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism (RAC), told us how important the advocacy of Jewish women is to Social Justice. Following in the footsteps of Queen Esther, our Federation members must "lift their voices" to make a difference. This is just a taste of what's to come in our 100th year. Continue to join us as we train, learn and advocate to MAKE IT HAPPEN.

IN MEMORIAM Joyce Ottenheimer, Past Federation President

As President of the Federation of Jewish Women's Organizations of Maryland, Joyce had the opportunity to inspire and empower many of us who are the leaders of today. She accomplished this by her love of life and its rules in a straightforward manner. She was a true mentor and friend and how fortunate we are to be the beneficiary of her values, skills and commitment. We will truly miss her.

IN MEMORIAM Paul Derman, husband of President Sheila Derman. May his memory be a blessing to us all.

Get ready for an exciting year of activities, learning and history as we celebrate our milestone event.
